The Arlington Municipal Federal Credit Union is a not-for-profit organization owned and operated by its members.

Any employee of the Town of Arlington or retired employee of the Town and any employee of the Arlington Housing Authority are eligible for membership. Once a member, any of your immediate family can join: spouse, children, parents, brothers, sisters, grandparents and grandchildren.

If you leave a qualifying place of employment you and your family can remain Life Time Members by maintaining a minimum savings balance under our policy of once a member, always a member. Please understand that other than the aforementioned requirements for membership, your credit union is completely autonomous from the Town of Arlington.

To be a member of the credit union, you must complete a membership application card and deposit $5 to remain on deposit, into a regular saving account.

Summary of Benefits & Services

To be a member of the credit union, you must complete a membership application card and deposit $5 to remain on deposit, into a regular saving account. You are then eligible for all benefits of membership in the credit union. You may then start payroll deduction to build your account automatically. Transactions may also be handled in person or by mail.

Your credit union offers very attractive loan rates on a wide variety of loans while at the same time returning high dividends to savers. Loan rates and dividend rates are viewed on an ongoing basis to make sure that they are competitive in the marketplace.

It is not necessary that you come to the credit union office to make a loan application. You may apply over the phone. All the necessary paper work can be prepared and signed when the check is picked up at the credit union office. The whole loan process is quick and easy for your convenience.
